The other day we heard one of our janitors complaining. He said to Mr. Buhler:
"Gee whiz, I don't ven have a broom."

"Well, what are you kickin' about?" was the answer, "You don't have to work if you don't have a broom!"

"I know, pounted the janitor, 'but I haven't got anything to lean on—like the other janitors!"

An old Southern planter was discussing the hereafter with one of the colored servants. "Sam", he said, "if you die first, I want you to come back and tell me what it's like over there. "If I die first, I'll come back and tell you what it's like."

"Dat suits me, massa," replied the old Negro, "but if you dies first, ah wants you to promise you'll come back in de daytime."

Mary A. Howe, returning from school one afternoon, said: "Gerry Todd's examination papers were so good that teacher keeps them on her desk to show visitors."

Asked about her own, she had to confess that they weren't good.

"But why aren't your as good as Gerry's," her mother asked. You have the same opportunities."

"I know, mother," said Mary, "but Gerry comes from a very bright family."

Russell S. out seeing the sights of the big city. As he looked around he noticed a sign on a shop, "Woman's Exchange". Entering, he found a forbidding-looking woman clerk behind the counter. He said, "Is this the Woman's Echange?"

Clerk: "Yes," came the curt reply.

Russell: "Are you the woman?"

Clerk: "Yes".

Russell: Sighing—"I guess I'll stick to Dorothy," he said soberly.

It was necessary for taxation purposes to decide which side of the Canadian and United States border a farm, which an old lady had just purchased, actually lay. Surveyors finally announced that the farm was just on the American side of the border. The old lady smiled with relief. "I'm so glad to know that," she said, I've heard the winters in Canada are terribly severe."
